

Course Information Sheet

Medical Marijuana Education (6 education hours)

Course Description: Is marijuana medicine? This course provides an historical perspective of marijuana, shares basic information about the drug, and explores the potential benefits of medical marijuana to help a variety of physical conditions. Important material about medical marijuana establishments, strains of marijuana that have possible health benefits, and characteristics of good customer service are discussed.

Course Objectives:

1. Explain an historical perspective of marijuana use
2. Discuss the scientific facts about marijuana and how the body responds to its long-term and short-term use
3. Explain the two sided issue related to marijuana use as a medicine
4. Discuss physical conditions commonly treated with medical marijuana
5. Identify the qualities of medical grade marijuana
6. Discuss the business of medical marijuana from the perspectives of the consumer and distributor

Click here to enroll in this course:

<http://substanceeducation.com/moodle-subed/course/view.php?id=45>