

Course Information Sheet

Methamphetamine: Abuse and Addiction (1 education hour)

Course Description: This course provides an overview of the latest scientific findings on methamphetamine. Included is a discussion on how the drug is abused, the scope of the problem in the United States, and the effects of abuse on the body.

Course Objectives:

1. Understand methamphetamine including: chemical make-up, common street names, and methods of use
2. Understand the scope of methamphetamine use across the United States
3. Identify short-term and long-term effects on the body
4. Understand federal, state, and local responses to combat use

Click here to enroll in this course:

<http://substanceeducation.com/moodle-subed/course/view.php?id=5>